Burney home during the week. Mrs. Burney entertained in their honor Saturday afternoon, and refreshments were served.

The all-day singing at Macomb Sunday was well attended. There was plenty to eat and good singing and everybody went away feeling it was good to have been there. Among those attending from here were Samuel Rippee, J. W. Brazeal and children, Miss Sylvia and Burnette, Miss Elva Turner, Roy Norcross, Ray White and Geo. Frye.

Mesdames W. A. Townes, W. H. Bollinger, S. C. Trimble, Jas. McMahan, John Taggard and Hattie Search, of the Needlecraft club, of Seymour, were here yesterday en route to Ava to spend the day, take in the sights of the Douglas county metropolis and have a genuine picnic generally. They were joined here by Mesdames W. B. Hitchcock, D. W. Hoover, J. D. Reynolds and M. E. West and Mrs. Paul, of Doniphan. It goes without saying that the ladies enjoyed themselves to the utmost. They had dinner on the H. S. Wilson lawn at Ava. The party, joined by Mrs. J. W. Needham of Seymour, and others had supper on the J. D. Reynolds lawn.

Several from other towns who are there attending court were here this week en route to the county seat.

By order of the board of education, Dr. R. M. Rogers lectured Monday at the public school from 9 to 10 a. m. on tinea capitis and hydrophobia. Several children in school, the doctor says, have tinea capitis.

There was a neighborhood dinner at G. M. Hensley's Sunday. There was 116 present. A bounteous dinner was enjoyed and in the afternoon ice cream and lemonade were served. All went away rejoicing for the good time they had. This is a good way to make a social neighborhood.—C.

We are publishing in this issue of the Mirror three articles of especial interest and value to our farmer readers. One is "Important Factors in Corn Production," by J. C. Beavers of Purdue University experiment station. Another is "Burning Stubble is Bad Practice." The third is "Experiments with Milk for Calves."

The Mirror family expects to leave Wednesday morning for St. Joseph to attend the meeting of the State Press Association. We expect to issue the paper on Tuesday and close up shop for the remainder of the week, so if you desire any printing done please let us know at once, so we can do the same before we leave. Advertisers and correspondents will please have their copy in Monday. We don't take these trips often, but we feel like we are entitled to a vacation once in a while after working 24 or less hours a day for six days a week, and the time of the press association meeting seems the best time to go. So bring in your $5 on subscription and we'll all be happy.

Every Home Needs a Faithful Cough and Cold Remedy

When seasons change and colds appear—when you first detect a cold after sitting next to one who has sneezed, then it is that a tried and tested remedy should be faithfully used. "I never wrote a testimonial before, but I know positively that for myself and family, Dr. King's New Discovery is the best cough remedy we ever used and we have tried them all." 50c and $1.00.—Adv.

Chamberlain's Liniment

If you are ever troubled with aches, pains, or soreness of the muscles, you will appreciate the good qualities of Chamberlain's Liniment. Many sufferers from rheumatism and sciatica have used it with the best results. It is especially good for lumbago and lame back. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Dynamite Magazine

Miners, prospectors and farmers, you can buy your supply of dynamite at the magazine in West Mansfield.—Adv.

Wheel Scraper

Iron Wheel Scraper for sale. Inquire at Peanut and Popcorn Roaster.—Adv.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

"I advised the boys when they enlisted in the Spanish war to take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with them, and have received many thanks for the advice given," writes J. H. Houghland, Eldon, Iowa. "No person whether traveling or at home should be without this great remedy." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Elder C. V. Ashworth, S. R. Hedrick and Eliza Stone attended the 72d annual session of the Ozark Association of Regular Primitive Baptists held with the Ozark church, near Rogersville, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Elder C. C. Agee has been their moderator for a number of years and George Beck has been their clerk. All was in perfect peace and harmony. Visiting Elders included Elders Taylor, Smith, of Sugar Creek association; Alberty and Coons, of Center Creek association; Sensebun, of Congo; Greene, White and Ford, of Ozark association. Preaching was of one peace.

Met at Norwood

The Wright County Sunday School convention was held at Norwood Monday and Tuesday and was one of the most interesting and profitable sessions yet held. There was a good attendance, 21 schools reporting. Some excellent talks were made. A splendid program being given. State Secretary Sterling L. Williams, of Liberty, delivered some able addresses. He is an old Wright county boy and one of whom we are proud. The many visitors to the convention were royally entertained by the good people of Norwood, who did everything in their power to make the meeting the splendid success it was. The present officers were re-elected and some additional officers were also elected. The present officers have done good work the past year and deserve credit for the fine program arranged. The following expression of sympathy was adopted:

Norwood, Mo., Sept. 7. Rev. Daniel Killam and wife, Hartville, Mo.

The Wright County Sunday School Association, in convention assembled at Norwood, learns with profound sorrow the tragedy which has brought your hearts to such unspeakable grief.

We desire to use this means of giving expression to our sincere and abiding sympathy and we devoutly pray that the truths of the Gospel may be your consolation, and that our Heavenly Father abide richly in your otherwise desolate hearts. "There is no flock, however tended, But that one dead lamb is there; There is no home, however defended, But that hath its empty chair." Done by order of the convention at the night session, Monday, Sept. 6, 1915. Ella Hirt, Co. Sec. J. A. Dennis, Pres.

Those present from here were Rev. Joseph Davis and Mrs. Eliza Peters, both of whom took part in the program, and Mesdames B. F. Stone and E. A. Sisk.

Tersely Told Town Tales

The C. P. Sunday school held their picnic Tuesday after being twice rained out.

Take your Eggs and Cream to J. D. Reynolds; he always pays the top price.—Adv.

Judge S. W. Hopper, R. D. Berry and C. V. Ashworth received new silos last week.

Marvin Pool had the misfortune to fall at the No. 5 school last week and fracture his right arm.

W. T. Norcross and sister-in-law Miss Laura Freeman, visited at the H. D. Norcross home near Seymour last week.

The rural carriers from the Mansfield postoffice attended the meeting of the rural carriers at Norwood Monday.

Director Cal Huntsinger, of the Mansfield concert band, is playing with the Clifton Comedy Co. band at Ava this week.

C. M. Seal is taking R. L. Alford's place this week at the Frisco depot while Mr. Alford is serving on the petit jury at Hartville.

Mrs. H. M. Norcross entertained her class of M. E. Sunday school scholars yesterday afternoon. Refreshments were served and the little folks had a big time.

The Mansfield Concert Band furnished music for the M. W. A. log rolling at Ava last week. The boys are giving some splendid music and their services are much in demand.

Rev. Joseph Davis closed a successful week's meeting to the Candler church, near Norwood, Sunday. He goes to Prairie Hollow this week to assist in a meeting at that place.

This is circuit court week at Hartville and many of our citizens have been there this week. Several from other towns who are there attending court were here this week en route to the county seat.

By order of the board of education, Dr. R. M. Rogers lectured Monday at the public school from 9 to 10 a. m. on tinea capitis and hydrophobia. Several children in school, the doctor says, have tinea capitis.

J. M. Juvenal to be Here

J. M. Juvenal, known to the fighting world as "Tommy Ryan," will arrive here Sunday morning with his show. Ryan was middleweight champion of the world for twelve years and retired undefeated. It was disputed between Ryan and Fitzsimmons, but as Fitz could not train to the required middleweight limit, 150 pounds, Ryan was given credit by all sporting editors as being middleweight champion. He and Fitz went ten terrific rounds to a draw at Coney Island May 17, 1902.

Juvenal, or Ryan, was very eccentric. Being educated as a Baptist minister at the State University at Lawrence, Kansas, he would not mix with the saloon element and enjoyed preaching at any church while training for contests. He never drank or used tobacco, never sweated and in his early days was called the fighting parson; this name was started from a bunch of rowdies that tried to break up a small church service he was conducting at Williamsport, Ind., but when the smoke of battle cleared away the rowdies were rather the worse for wear.

Mr. Juvenal has a high class minstrel show with him, and with his "strong man" act gives a most pleasing entertainment. In connection with the show is a splendid brass band composed of the company of colored minstrels. The show will be in this city next week.

They Are All Right

Juvenal's Stadium Shows and Minstrels have been making Advance lively this week. They have made good in every way and are the best we have ever seen. The minstrels and music were splendid.

Mr. Juvenal, the great athlete, is simply wonderful. He is in his 33d year and is an example for our boys. He never uses tobacco or liquor, and to see him handling the big 190 pound weight you would think him about 30. Juvenal held the middleweight championship of the world for twelve years under the name of Tommy Ryan and retired undefeated in 1898. He also won the middle weight lifting championship of the world in St. Louis March 17, 1899, putting 194 pounds above his head with one hand. He represented America in the International Olympic games at Athens, Greece, in 1896, and was sparring partner to J. J. Corbett. He is also an ordained minister and preaches wherever requested. We consider Mr. Juvenal's show, conducted as it is, a benefit to any town instead of a nuisance, as some shows are. Mr. Juvenal and his people will be welcomed back to Advance.—Advance (Mo.) New Era.

The Fife Revival

The revival services at the Christian church, conducted by Evangelist Roger H. Fife, of Plymouth, Ind., are being largely attended, and the evangelist is settling forth a line of strong Gospel sermons. The meetings are conducted in the hall where the church holds its regular meetings, on account of the threatening weather, and not in a tent, as was at first intended. The meetings are expected to continue until next Wednesday night, as the evangelist must hurry to his next engagement.

Services are being held twice a day, at 2:30 in the afternoon and at 7:30. Already there have been three additions to the church and others are expected. Evangelist Fife is looking after the business of the church, as well as its spirituality, and is setting things in order for a permanent work.

Many are attending the meeting from Hartville, Mountain Grove and other near-by towns. The attendance is expected to tax the capacity of the hall from this time on to the close. Sunday night the evangelist will give an account of his experience in becoming a Christian.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured

"My attention was first called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as 12 years ago. At that time I was seriously ill with summer complaint. One dose of this remedy checked the trouble," writes Mrs. C. W. Florence, Rockfield, Ind. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Killed by Automobile

Our community was shocked Monday by the receipt of a telephone message from Hartville, stating that Eva, the 4-year old daughter of Rev. D. D. Killam and wife, of Hartville, had been run over and killed by the automobile driven by Tarbut, son, of Mansfield, who has the contract for carrying the U. S. mail from Mansfield to Hartville.

This is court week at Hartville and the city has an unusually large crowd of visitors, many of whom witnessed the terrible accident. It seems that the little girl had been in town with Mrs. G. M. Hunter, the child's mother being in poor health. As Mrs. Hunter and the child were crossing the street near the J. F. Allen store, about 11 o'clock in the morning, Mr. Tarbutton approached in the auto, driving at a slow rate of speed. Apparently the child became confused and was in front of the car before the driver could see her and stop. She was struck by the car and both the front and rear wheels passed over her body, causing her death in a short time. Mr. Tarbutton immediately stopped and rendered all the aid possible. The child was carried to a drug store to receive medical attention, but it had received fatal injuries and nothing could be done to save the baby's life.

No one is held to blame for the sad accident, as it seems that no one was at fault for the sad tragedy which has darkened the home of the ones so sadly bereft. To Rev. Mr. Killam, who is pastor of the M. E. church at Hartville and also for some of the country charges, and to his wife, our people extend their deepest sympathy, also to Mr. Tarbutton, who is heart-broken over the awful accident in which he was unwillingly a participant.

The funeral services were conducted from the M. E. church at Mountain Grove Tuesday, by Rev. J. W. Needham, of Seymour, and Rev. H. R. Osborne, of Mountain Grove. Several auto loads of the Hartville people accompanied the funeral party from Hartville to Mansfield, where they took the train for Mountain Grove. Some of the Mansfield citizens also attended the funeral.

R. N. Farren carried the mail Tuesday while Mr. Tarbutton attended the funeral.

Hartville

The county court met Monday as a board of equalization for merchants' assessments. It was also arranged to send Mrs. A. J. Grantham of Mansfield to the state hospital at Nevada.

Superintendent H. M. Dornit and Principal E. L. Bouldin predict a successful school term at the Hartville High School, which opened August 30, as many non-residents have matriculated. The other teachers report a full attendance.

Arthur Pearson of Willow Springs and Miss Gene Turner, a prominent school teacher of Wright county, daughter of John Turner and wife, were married at the home of the bride's parents Monday evening by Rev. T. J. Gideon in the presence of many relatives and friends. After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their many friends. The Mirror joins in congratulations.

Dr. Smith, of 10 miles north of Hartville, while making a professional call Saturday night, was thrown from his horse and severely injured, dying a few hours afterwards. He was buried with Masonic honors Sunday, several from Hartville and Mansfield and a large number of relatives and friends being present. The doctor was an old resident of Wright county, past 80 years of age—a Christian gentleman, loved and respected by all.

The river receding since the recent swell, fishing is the order of the day, and many fishing parties are seen wending their way daily towards Uncle Billy Cline's—or some other prominent place on the river. Fred Carter, Dewey Pool, Roy Curtis and Clarence Curtis went to the Deep Ford Saturday night in the Curtis car and caught some fish; as no two in the party tell the same story, it is very difficult to tell just how many fish were caught.

Fullington-Spillman

W. Horace Fullington, of Mansfield, and Miss Denia Spillman, of Polk, Polk county, were united in marriage Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, coming to Mansfield that night. They were met at Seymour by J. E. Elder and Miss Cattie Roberts.

The newly wedded couple will make their home here, Mr. Fullington owning an interest in the Roberts & Elder canning factory. The courtship of these excellent young people began when both were students at the Southwest Baptist college at Bolivar. The bride and groom both have scores of friends who join with us in congratulations and best wishes.
